CBB STUDENT MEMBERSHIP

The CBB is working on creating more undergraduate student, graduate student, faculty, and CBB interactions. The goal is to have an affiliation that will be beneficial to students, faculty and the CBB, A synergy that will allow the student to take advantage of the resources of the Center and increase campus-wide knowledge of the Center. Please contact Mitch Rotman at mitchell-rotman@uiowa.edu if you are interested in becoming a member of the CBB.

- Provides an opportunity to learn about the Biotechnology field early in their career
- Networking, both internally and externally to the University
- May provide programs that assist students in future endeavors
- Resume builder
- Attend/possibly present poster at yearly CBB Conference
- Address area's that are not currently being addressed in the University setting
- Experience of an industrial environment located here at the University
- Possible funding opportunities
- Communications for various student events on campus

CBB Student Membership Form

NAME: ________________________________________________________________

Degree/Major/Yr.: __________________________________________________________

E-mail: ________________________________________________________________

Expectation of membership: _____________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

_______________________________________________________________________

Please send to mitchell-rotman@uiowa.edu or C100 MTF (Campus Mail)